

All-new eLearning Academy Launch

ANA eLearning ACADEMY

The ANA's Education Department is excited to announce the launch of the all-new eLearning Academy on April 29, 2024. Designed to spread numismatic knowledge on an online platform, the eLearning Academy will provide members with the programs below.

YN Programming is being redesigned to focus on age appropriate activities. Kids in grades K-12 will be given new opportunities to engage in projects and earn numismatic items. Students in grades K-5 will be part of the Coin Explorers Program. Students in grades 6-8 will be partake in Money Study Buddies. Students in 9-12 will be part of the Currency Connectors Program. Each program will be outlined on the new eLearning Academy.

Aristotle's Vault is an online video series designed preserve expert numismatic knowledge. Within the eLearning Academy you will select a course (called a forum) to watch. Each forum will be broken into episodes.

NumismaTalks will be moved and stored on the eLearning Academy. Past recordings (starting in December, 2023) will be available only to members through the eLearning Academy.

The Numismatic Diploma Program

will begin its migration to the eLearning Academy platform, with registration for the 1st online course available to members only. Courses will gradually be released as they are updated. Even if you have taken Introduction to Numismatics, you may want to sign-up to take the updated and interactive version.

The eLearning Academy

Archive will provide access to a variety of webinars and recordings from past shows and events.

The eLearning academy is being designed to reflect The School of Athens. Built on the idea that great minds would convene at the ancient "academy" to share, debate, and preserve thought, the eLearning Academy will be a place where numismatic thought is preserved, shared, debated, and learned.
